Client fund safeguarding

In compliance with the provisions of Law 21/2011, of July 26, on Electronic Money and its implementing regulations, UNNAX, as an electronic money institution, must safeguard the funds received in exchange for the issuance of electronic money, in accordance with the procedures provided in Article 21 of Royal Decree-Law 19/2018, of November 23, on Payment Services and other urgent financial measures.

It is stated that the safeguarding method chosen by UNNAX during its authorization process as an electronic money institution was the deposit into a separate account, in accordance with Article 16 of Royal Decree 778/2012, of May 4, on the legal framework of electronic money institutions.

Customer service

As an Electronic Money institution, UNNAX has a Customer Service in accordance with the provisions of Order ECO/734/2004, of 11 March, on customer care departments and services and the customer ombudsman of financial institutions (the "Order ECO/734/2004") and in the Supervisory Guide on the criteria for the organisation and operation of the customer services of institutions supervised by the Banco de España (the "Guide").

The Customer Service Department is available for you to file a complaint in the event that you consider that UNNAX has failed to comply with any of its obligations in the provision of its services.
